"This Is the jungle as I see it after nearly forty years of first craving for it. then living in It, and Anally, studying what others have said about it and making flying trips into it to check on these statements." (Foreword) Index.
"The book is large and full of solid informatlon-personal adventures are only an amusing minor element-and is illustrated with Mr.
Sanderson's sketches, a great variety of photographs. old engravings, and the fantasies of Henri Rousseau" Phoebe Adams

"[A] British-born zoologist and botanist and popularizer of natural history has parted the green vell to permit an extended glimpse into its variety and mystery at all levels plant, animal and human. i.e., Pygmy life.
The result for the reader is a coherent, intriguing picture of a much befogged subject.
In large and handsome format.
Ils] a book for every public library." A. L

"Facts. impressions and speculations are bound together by Mr. Sanderson's flair for well-told anecdotes and jaunty comment. And, wonderful to see. the excellent charts and illustrations fall right where they belong in the text."
